DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The claim rejections under 35 USC 112 2nd Paragraph are withdrawn due to Applicant's amendment of 4 March 2005.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 7 and 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by WO 99/26506 (US Pat. No. 6,450,931 Frey).

Frey teaches a device for removing, setting an punching holes for eyelets in tarpaulins which includes a claw head 10 (fig. 1), cutting or stamping head 22 (fig 7), riveting head 21 (fig. 6) which are interchangeable (see col. 4, lines 25-30, for example), a actuating lever 19 with actuator 20 on a second hand grip, the second part of actuator 20 being on the first hand grip (see fig. 5).

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments filed 4 March 2005 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant asserts the Frey patent describes “a device for removal or setting of eyelets or the punching of holes itself, rather than a holding device of such a device”. Examiner notes that Applicant has only claimed a “holding device”. Applicant has claimed a holding device and has set forth the limitations of the structure required for the “holding device”. Applicant appears to be arguing two “devices” whereas only one device has been claimed, the “holding device”. The holding device, which an actuating lever, means for removably pressing, first and second hand grips, and a processing head, is a device for removal or setting of eyelets and for punching holes in the article.

In response to applicant's argument that the references fail to show certain features of applicant's invention, it is noted that the features upon which applicant relies (i.e., an actuating device for removing a holding device from a contact position) are not recited in the rejected claim(s). Although the claims are interpreted in light of the specification, limitations from the specification are not read into the claims. See In re Van Geuns, 988 F.2d 1181, 26 USPQ2d 1057 (Fed. Cir. 1993).

Applicant asserts that there is no disclosure in Frey of “two hand grips for the operator”. As stated in the above rejection, the holding device of Frey shows two handles 19 (figure 5).

Conclusion

5. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.

Art Unit: 3722
